DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 5, 6, 19, 22-33 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claim 5, patentability resides in "an RFID transponder adhered to said adhesive, and a hologram on the label material wherein the tamper evident label material is a vinyl with a tensile and tear resistance such that the tamper evident label material one of tears and breaks upon an attempted removal from a substrate.", in combination with the other limitations of the claim.

Regarding claim 6, patentability resides in "an RFID transponder adhered to said adhesive, and microprinting on the label material wherein the tamper evident label material is a vinyl with a tensile and tear resistance such that the tamper evident label material one of tears and breaks upon an attempted removal from a substrate.", in combination with the other limitations of the claim.

Regarding claim 19, patentability resides in "an RF transponder adhered to said adhesive; and a hologram on the label material; wherein separation of the tag from a substrate results in incomplete separation of the adhesive in the form of the silicone pattern and said pattern becomes visible.", in combination with the other limitations of the claim.
